

CIVIC EDUCATION

Youth Video Competition

The Florida League of Cities is pleased to announce the winners of the 5th Annual Municipal Youth Council Video Competition. The goal of the program is to provide a way for Florida's youth councils to showcase their ideas, creativity and commitment to their community. This year's competition asked youth councils to create a 30-second or 60-second video to answer one simple question: Why I Love My City?

The winners are:

FIRST PLACE

City of Tampa Mayor's Youth Corps

Tampa: The City Without Limits

SECOND PLACE

City of Fort Myers Teen Advisory Council

I Love Fort Myers

THIRD PLACE

City of Niceville Youth Advisory Council

This is Niceville

FOURTH PLACE

City of Dade City Youth Council

Dade City: The Place to Be

FIFTH PLACE

City of Sanford Mayor's Youth Council

Why I Love Sanford

To view the videos, visit floridaleagueofcities.com/Resources.aspx?CNID=17591.

RECOGNITION

Sewall's Point Commissioner Honored with Burl Long Award

Jacqui Thurlow-Lippisch, commissioner for the Town of Sewall's Point, was recognized with the Burl Long Award by the University of Florida Natural Resources Leadership Institute (NRLI). The leadership program is designed to educate community leaders to help them collaborate more successfully and find solutions to natural resource problems. The award is presented each year to the class member who has shown the most growth and use of NRLI concepts and tools, incorporating conflict management and collaborative decision making into his or her work and changed the most as a result of the NRLI experience.